MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Stanley Sporkin
General Counsel

SUBJECT: Request for Congressional Testimony

Bill:

1. Congressman Dingell, Chairman of the Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations, House Committee on Energy and Commerce, is very anxious to have me testify on the Mobil investigation. This is a matter that was under my jurisdiction while at the Securities and Exchange Commission. I am not very pleased about testifying and expressed my opposition to the Subcommittee's staff. Congressman Dingell personally called me the other day to insist on my appearance. I told him that if he insisted I guessed I had very little alternative but to attend.

2. This appears to be one of those cases where, had the Commission accepted my recommendation, they would not have been in this position. It is my view that my testimony will simply consist of relating facts that transpired. I would like to discuss this with you as soon as possible.

Stanley Sporkin

Dear Mr. Casey:

The Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee has been reviewing an enforcement matter at the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Stanley Sporkin, the current CIA General Counsel, was the Director of Enforcement at the SEC when this matter was investigated. Therefore, the Subcommittee has requested that Mr. Sporkin testify on this matter on Monday, February 8, 1982. His testimony is important to the Subcommittee's inquiry.

I will assure you that no matters involving his present position will be discussed at the hearing.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

John D. Dingell
Chairman
Subcommittee on
Oversight and Investigations
